

DREAMS GO BY

[D]There you stand in your [A]dungarees looking [Bm]all grown up and so [A]very pleased
When you [D]write your poems they have so [A]much to say
When you [Bm]speak your dreams it takes my [A]breath away
You [G]know I want to be a ball player
A [D]regular slugging [Bm]fool
But [G]both our dreams must [A]wait awhile
[G]Until we [A]finish [D]school

[CHORUS]

And so [D]you and I, We watch our [G]years go by
We watch our [A]sweet dreams fly
Far [Bm]away, but [A]maybe someday
I [D]don't know when But we will [G]dream again
And we'll be [A]happy then
Till our [Bm]time just [A]drifts away

[D]There you stand in your [A]wedding dress
You're so [Bm]beautiful that I [A]must confess
[D]I'm so proud you have [A]chosen me
When a [Bm]doctor is what you [A]want to be
You [G]know I want to be a painter, girl
A [D]real artistic [Bm]snob
But I [G]guess we'll have our [A]children first You'll make a [G]home, I'll [A]get a [D]job

[CHORUS]

[Bm]Listen to the [A]seasons passing
[Em]Listen to the [G]wind blow
[Bm]Listen to the [A]children laughing
[Em]Where do broken [G]dreams [A]go?

[D]There you stand in your [A]tailored suit
So many [Bm]years gone by, but you're [A]still so cute
We [D]take the car to go and [A]meet the bus
When our [Bm]grandchildren come to [A]visit us
You [G]say you should have been a ballerina, babe
There are [D]songs I should have [Bm]sung
But I [G]guess our dreams have [A]come and gone
You gotta [G]dream when [A]you are [D]young

And so [D]you and I We've watched our [G]years go by We've watched our [A]sweet dreams fly
Far [Bm]away, but [A]maybe someday
I [D]don't know when But we will [G]dream again
And we'll be [A]happy then
Till our [G]time just [A]drifts away[D]
