

So Many People – capo 4

Written by Roger Ferris

[G]So many people [C]givin' up on [G]love
[C]Sayin' they've seen [G]enough when they ain't seen [D]nothin'
It might sound [G]corny, old-[C]fashioned and a little [G]square
If you [C]find a heart that [G]cares, you'd better [D]keep it
And I'm no [Em]angel
So don't [C]ask me how I know
If you do not [G]kill it – [D]it [G]grows

[C] I'm not nearly wise enough to be giving this advice
[G] But I've seen a thing or two once or twice
[C] And every broken hearted fool that I've ever met
[G] Has somebody somewhere that [D]they cannot forget

So many [G]people [C]cashin' it all [G]in [C]Tryin' to find love [G]again but it ain't [D]easy
No I ain't [G]perfect, but I've [C]learned the hardest [G]part
Is [C]breakin' your own [G]heart by bein' [D]foolish
And I'm no [Em]angel

BREAK:

C G C G D      Em C G C G D

[C] I'm not nearly wise enough to be giving this advice
[G] But I've seen a thing or two once or twice
[C] And every broken hearted fool that I've ever met
[G] Has somebody somewhere that [D]they cannot forget

[G]So many people [C]givin' up on [G]love
[C]Sayin' they've seen [G]enough when they ain't seen [D]nothin'
It might sound [G]corny, old-[C]fashioned and a little [G]square
If you've [C]found a heart that [G]cares, you'd better [D]keep it
And I'm no [Em]angel. So don't [C]ask me how I know
If you do not [G]kill it – [D]it [Em]grows [C]
If you do not [G]kill it – [D]love [G]grows
